World-Link Solutions, Inc.	499 ID # 812286
One Wall Street Court, 5 th Floor	FRN 000-9096363
New York, New York 10005	FEIN: 13-4164619

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Pursuant to the Order of the Chief, Wireline Competition Bureau, CC Docket Nos. 96-45, 98-171 and 97-21, adopted November 19, 2004 and released December 9, 2004 (Order), World-Link Solutions, Inc. (World-Link), by its attorneys, submits herewith revised FCC Form 499-A for 2002 covering the revenue period of January 1 -December 31, 2001.

World-Link is submitting this revised form because it inadvertently reported non-jurisdictional revenues when it originally filed its 499-A form for 2002.

A revised FCC Form 499-A for 2002 is submitted showing the proper amount of jurisdictional revenues for the year 2001.

The showing of good cause for submitting the revisions beyond the one-year revision window, the explanation of the cause for the change and complete supporting documentation showing that the revised figures are derived from corporate financial records as required by the Order (§ 13) are contained in and presented by the Certification of Evan Ioannou, World-Link's Managing Director, and the attachments thereto.

Should any questions arise, kindly contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,
World-Link Solutions, Inc.

CERTIFICATION

I, Evan Ioannou, am Managing Director of World-Link Solutions, Inc. (World-Link).

Under the penalty of perjury, I certify that the facts set forth herein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

This certification is given in confidence and may be used solely in connection with the Universal Service Administrative Company's processing of the revised FCC Form 499-A for 2002 with which it is submitted as authorized by the Order of the Chief, Wireline Competition Bureau, CC Docket Nos. 96-45, 98-171 and 97-21, adopted November 19, 2004 and released December 9, 2004 (Order).

The original filing of the 499-A Form for 2002 by World-Link was in error.

A revised FCC Form 499-A for 2002 is being submitted herewith. (Attachment A.)

The revised form shows corrected revenues for 2001 of $7,228,717 and a corrected contribution total of $526,612.08 for 2001.

The differences arise from the error in originally reporting revenues of $10,891,925. This figure contained $3,663,208 in non-jurisdictional (wholesale service revenues) revenues that resulted in over stating contributions as $793,476.74.

The corrected contribution level of $526,612.08 is $266,864.66 lower than the erroneously reported contribution level.

The filing of FCC Form 499-A for 2002 is therefore revised to correct the amount of telecommunications revenues earned in that year and on which World-link recognizes its obligations to base its USF and related contributions.

World-Link discovered the error of including non-jurisdictional revenues and filed a revised 499-A form on June 25, 2003. (Attachment B.)

World-Link could not have filed sooner than it did because of multiple reasons including: the difficulty of separating the revenue streams at the time with the available software (this problem was corrected later with the new reporting suite developments). The company's Financial Controller at the time filled the 2002 Form. However, right after that he realised that he put certain numbers in wrong boxes, so he wanted to file a revision. The revision #1 was filled on 10/15/02. In this revision he used a wrong report (generated due to the software limitations at the time) and erroneously adjusted the numbers by including the wholesale revenues. During 2003, Evan Ioannou discovered the mistake and decided to file a second revision with the correct numbers. This was revision #2 filed on 6/25/03. So, the reason why the revision was filled after the acceptable revision date, is because the error was discovered after this date too.

On July 24, 2003, USAC notified World-Link that a portion of its USAC account had been referred to the FCC for collection. (Attachment C. Note the date is incorrectly stated as July 24, 2004.)

On August 27, 2003, USAC refused to accept the revised form and advised of the right to appeal its determination. (Attachment D.)

On September 6, 2003, the FCC's Revenue and Operations Group notified World-Link that it owed a debt on the USF contribution. (Attachment E.)

World-Link had its attorneys prepare the appeal and the appeal was filed with the Commission on October 27, 2003. (Attachment F.)

On October 28, 2003, World-Link's attorneys notified the FCC that it had filed an appeal of USAC's refusal to accept the revised 499-A for 2002. (Attachment G.)

On October 13, 2004, the FCC's Revenue & Receivables Operations Group notified World-Link that of the alleged delinquency in the amount of $571,573.07. (Attachment H.)

On November 1, 2004, World-Link's counsel notified the FCC's Revenue & Receivables Operations Group of the pending and unresolved appeal that was filed October 27, 2003. (Attachment I.)

As set forth in the October 27, 2003 appeal (see Attachment A to Attachment F herein), for the year 2001, World-Link over-reported revenues by $3,663,208 which resulted in an excessive level of contribution liability of $266,864.66.
